

Bio

Over a period of twenty years, comedian Tim Cavanagh has built a career by being funny without being vulgar. His show is an inventive combination of stand-up, funny songs and gentle, non-threatening audience interaction. He brings to the stage a B.A. in Philosophy, a background as a religion teacher at an all-girls' Catholic highschool, and years of nightclub, college, and corporate experience.

His unique, upbeat brand of comedy has been showcased on countless radio shows around the country. The nationally syndicated "Bob & Tom" radio show has been incredibly generous in giving Tim a regular outlet for his witty and often topical songs. Other major radio credits include multiple appearances on "The Danny Bonaduce Show" and twenty-plus songs broadcast on "The Dr. Demento Show".

On television, Tim was recently seen on Comcast Cable's "Comedy Spotlight". He has also been featured on a prime time ABC-TV comedy special and on Comedy Central.

Chicago Magazine calls Tim "a wonderful original". In Pittsburgh writes that Tim "performs one of the best and cleanest acts on the comedy circuit". And, Danny Bonaduce says, "Tim's the funniest guy in the world. He's so cute, you just wanna kiss him".
