

Bill Curry

*Former Green Bay Packer & Baltimore Colt
1989 College Football National Coach of the Year
College Football Analyst for ESPN
Motivational Speaker*

In sports, in business, in life, an understanding of what it takes to be a top performer is crucial for success. Bill Curry, as an NFL Super Bowl Champion, an elite college head football coach, and an ESPN analyst, will share with you his understanding of what it takes to accomplish your goals.

Bill has served under the tutelage of some of the greatest coaches in history: Bobby Dodd, Vince Lombardi, and Don Shula. He played in four NFL championship games, resulting in one World Championship and two Super Bowl Championships, Super Bowl I and Super Bowl V. As head coach at Georgia Tech, Alabama, and Kentucky, he coached in numerous bowl games, and was named Coach of the Year in the Atlantic Coast Conference and the Southeastern Conference. In 1989, he was named Bobby Dodd National Coach of the Year.

In addition to broadcasting, Bill has gained a reputation as one of the most inspiring speakers in America. He combines a humorous, dynamic delivery with a commanding presence. Employing the principles of motivation learned from his prominent mentors, Curry understands how to inspire and challenge others. He knows from experience that the road to success is not without its valleys and he powerfully expresses the necessity of rising from defeat again and again.
