In his training seminars and keynote presentations, Darrell “Flash” Gordon draws upon all of his remarkable life experiences: as an all-star linebacker for the University of Notre Dame’s 1988 National Championship Football Team; as a legal professional; as a graduate school professor, and as a CEO of a multi-million-dollar-a-year organization. His energy, excitement, humor, and wisdom are contagious! Let Darrell “Flash” Gordon inspire your group!

“I’m not sure we could have won that championship without Flash’s on-field contribution, but it was his attitude off the field that was even more important to our success!”

— Lou Holtz, Former Head Coach,
The University of Notre Dame

“Here’s a guy who’s been to the top, who has been part of a national championship team, and he tells kids it all boils down to this: the content of your character. He’s an outstanding guy!”

Ron Stratten, Vice-President, NCAA

“I know you do a great job . . . You are Awesome Baby!”

—Dick Vitale, College Basketball Analyst

“Darrell is a great man!”

Regis Philbin, TV Personality
