Classic Rock Satire

Unique, Clean Comedy

Skip Griparis presents an extraordinary comedic and musical one-man stage show featuring satirical impressions of more than 45 stars of song, TV, and the silver screen, from the 50's to the present.

Skip's remarkable, high-energy tour de force showcases a unique blend of precise, sidesplitting impressions through clean, insightful satire, virtuoso guitar picking and an astonishingly versatile 3-1/2 octave vocal range that sends the folks home buzzing "What a voice! And, he looks like everyone he does!"

Skip's credits are extensive: headliner for major comedy clubs across the country, album recording artist, touring member of Olivia Newton-John's band, stage and film actor.

Skip Griparis is a genuine master of classic rock, pop, soul, jazz, and country. So, he needs no prerecorded tapes, no electronic trick. Just more musical fun than you ever thought possible from one guy and a guitar!
