

RICCI

HIS SON REMEMBERS

While there could be only one Dean Martin, his youngest son, Ricci, is continuing to tour with his fun and exciting show that celebrates his father's life. Ricci takes you on a walk down memory lane, singing many of his father's hit songs like "Memories are Made of This", "Volare", "That's Amore", "Houston", "Sway" and "Everybody Loves Somebody Sometime", just to name a few.

There is also lots of humor in the style that made us all fall in love with Dean. Ricci's banter with his band, "The Pack", is very reminiscent of the "Rat Pack" days of old Vegas. During certain musical segments, photos are projected on a screen of Dean's family life, his Vegas performances, and his hit television series, "The Dean Martin Show", featuring the biggest stars of the day. Some photos are so personal that no one has ever seen them outside of Dean's immediately family.

In a heartfelt segment of the show, Ricci tells the story of Dean and Jerry's (Lewis) break-up.

Also shown is an award winning music video that Ricci directed in the '80s for MTV featuring his father singing "Since I Met You Baby".

To add yet another dimension to the show, Ricci includes the audience in his tribute by stepping off the stage for a question and answer session, fielding questions about a very private Dean Martin as only his son could. The Q & A to this day continues to be one of the funniest and most memorable parts of the show.

Ricci has performed his show at major casinos and venues throughout the United States, Canada and Europe. Dean's fans, young and old alike, have a rare opportunity to get to know Dean Martin as never before through the eyes of his son. The show, to this day, continues to receive nightly standing ovations.

So, pour yourself a drink, sit back, and enjoy the show!
