

Kelly McDonald

Corporate Humorist

Kelly McDonald features material from his appearances on “The Tonight Show” (with both Johnny Carson and Jay Leno) to present a unique and hilarious view of life in today’s odd world.

Using anecdotes, observations and one-liners, he provides plenty of fresh “takes” on the experiences we share trying to keep up with the times.

Kelly’s act is classy, original and delivered in a genuinely upbeat and friendly style. NO insult humor, NO cheap shots, and NO material of questionable taste. Just a clean, smart show that will leave audiences laughing and feeling good about what they’ve just seen and heard.
