

GREG RAKESTRAW

Greg Rakestraw is the host of ESPN's "Sports Desk" on 950 AM radio weekdays from 3p-6p. The show focuses on what listeners want to talk about and features interviews with sports figures in the Indiana area.

Greg is a 1998 graduate of the University of Indianapolis. He began working in radio as a student in 1994, part-time at WNDE in 1996 and in 1998 he became full time and hosted "Sports Daily" with Bill Benner and Tim Bragg. When Greg left WNDE, he produced and co-hosted WXNT's "Sports Club Radio" with Rich Nye and Barry Krauss. Greg became part of the full time ESPN staff when he began hosting "Sports Desk" in 2001.

Among Greg's credits are being the voice of the IUPUI Jaguars for three years

play by play announcer for Franklin College for four years covered Indianapolis 500 races, Formula One and Brickyards provided media work for the ISHAA network

Greg and his wife, Amy, love to spoil their cat named Lucy.

Spotlight

Speakers & Entertainment
P O Box 236, Carmel, Indiana 46082

317-815-9160