

WHAT IS THIS? SOME KIND OF JOKE?

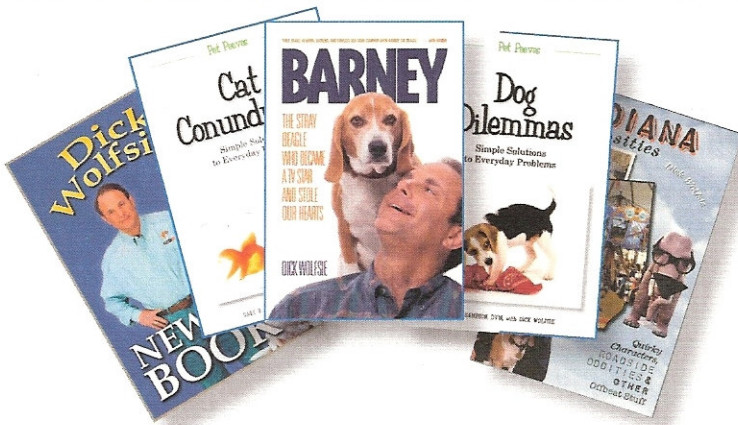

Yes, it is — but what kind?

Only Dick Wolfsie can offer your group an informative, inspirational and hysterically funny answer to that question.

In a truly unique program on humor and laughter in our lives, Dick tackles the ticklish issues of the day like:

- * What all funny people have in common
- * Why men tell more jokes than women
- * The search for the world's funniest joke
- * Ethnic jokes: funny or fatal?
- * Why your brother-in-law is not funny

Without any salty language, Dick peppers his presentation with hilarious examples collected from 25 years as a speaker and TV personality.

Author of eight books and a syndicated humor column, Dick also has a real job at WISH-TV in Indianapolis, where he is a feature reporter for the morning newscast. Many of his stories air on TV stations around the country.

“Dick is like the best high school teacher you ever had.

He makes you laugh and think.”
